FRANCE

The France homicide rate fluctuated substantially in recent years, it tended to decrease through 2000 - 2014 period ending at 1.2 cases per 100,000 population in 2014.

Since 2014 several high-profile fatal terror attacks have happened in France, including the January 2015 Ile-de-France attacks, the November 2015 Paris attacks, the 2016 Magnanville stabbing, the 2016 Nice attack, the 2016 Normandy church attack, and the 2018 Paris knife attack. These attacks have been one of the reasons for the homicide rate fluctuation after 2014.

In September 2018, a police chief was brutally stabbed to death in the city of Rodez. The attacker was known to police. He had defaced the city hall door on 11 April.

SOUTH AFRICA

Around 49 people are murdered in South Africa every day. The murder rate increased rapidly in the late-1980s and early-1990s. Between 1994 -2009, the murder rate halved from 67 to 34 murders per 100,000 people. Between 2011-2015, it stabilised to around 32 homicides per 100,000 people although the total number of lives lost has increased due to the increase in population.

UNITED ARAB EMIRATES

The homicide rate in the UAE is 2.6 per 100,000. The average global homicide rate for the period was 6.3 per 100,000 population.

However, there is a huge problem with human trafficking and prostitution due to porous borders and proximity to war-ravaged nations.
